Friday 15th December 2017

A very cold hello everyone!

Brrrrrrrrrr—what a week we have had. Well done to everyone who got to school on Wednesday and today—it was so icy you all deserve your ice skating awards!

Please can I ask, especially in this icy weather, that you do not pull up on the zig-zags outside school. It was chaos and very dangerous outside school yesterday and the police will be patrolling next week and giving out tickets to inconsiderate parkers—you have been warned!

Have a great weekend everyone!

Don't forget to download the free eSchools App so you can receive emails, text messages, newsletters and other important information.

Christmas Fayre

Last Friday we held our annual Christmas Fayre. The halls were filled with music, delicious food and fun activities for the community to enjoy. We also had a visit from Santa in his grotto!

A big thank you to the 'Friends of Thornton' who helped organise the event. We couldn't have done it without you!

Don't forget our nativity performance by Years 1 and 2 'A Wiggly Nativity' is on Wednesday 20th December at 9.15 am

All parents are welcome to attend

Refreshments are provided!

School will close at the normal time of 3:30pm on Friday 22nd December.

School will reopen on Monday 8th January at 8.45am.

Hope you all have a lovely break!
