9th June 2017

Hello everyone!

Great to see you all back after half term—but what on earth has happened to the weather? Hopefully summer will be back soon!

We are fully into the swing of test season with Year 1 doing their Phonics Screen next week—good luck Year 1—we know you will be brilliant. The Year 6 team are also having their writing assessments moderated by the local authority but again we are sure the children's work will come out with flying colours. Please take time to read through the newsletter—lots of things coming up for you to remember!

Sue Simmons, Headteacher.
