The Thornton Times Autumn Term

www.thornton.bham.sch.uk

2nd October 2015

Hello everyone,

A big thank you for attending Parents' evening this week—some classes had 100% attendance so well done to everyone! Don't forget my Coffee Morning next Friday from 9.00a.m. Come along and hear all about our new approach to reading! Have a great weekend.

Sue Simmons, Headteacher.

Reminders!

It is forbidden to park or pull up on the ziq zaqs outside the school gates. These markings are here to keep children and pedestrians safe and access to the gates must be kept clear at all times. Please help to prevent accidents by taking extra caution when driving to school and reducing your speed. From next week there will be cones marking off the ziq zaqs and the police will be patrolling St Agatha's Road. You will get a ticket if you park on the zig zags. Thank you.

To save resources, newsletters are now being sent home with oldest siblings. If your oldest child is absent on Friday, you can find a copy in the 'Newsletters' section of our website.

National Poetry Week!

Next week, Thornton will be celebrating National Poetry Week. Children will be looking at different poets and creating and performing their own poems.

Chris White, a poet and illustrator, who has worked for the BBC and appeared at literacy festivals, including: The Edinburgh Fringe Festival and the Young Readers UK Festival, will be coming in to work with the children on Thursday 8th October. Each year group will have an hour session with Chris, hearing some of his poems and helping him to create some new and exciting poetry! We'd love parents to join us for the workshops so, if you're free and want to come along, check the times below to find out when your child's year group will be working with Chris: Reception, Year 1, Year 2: 9am-9:55am  Year 3: 10am - 11am  Year 4: 11:05am – 12:05pm

 Year 5: 1:30pm - 2:25pm

 Year 6: 2:30 - 3:25

We look forward to seeing you for some fantastic poetry fun! Mr B Hulbert, Literacy Coordinator.
