

Hello everyone

A huge thank you to everyone for the fantastic effort and fun we had today on our World Book Day! There was such an excited buzz around school as everyone discussed their characters, shared our new whole school book 'Aaron Slater, Illustrator' by Andrea Beaty and illustrated by David Roberts, and welcomed the one and only kOrky Paul to Thornton! It was an absolute delight to share our World Book Day with such a prestigious and entertaining illustrator and author, and we look forward to sharing much more information about this with you in next week's bumper newsletter!

Well done to Year 3, who were great ambassadors for Thornton during their exploration of Think Tank. Lots of great learning and fun was had by all — check out our school Twitter ('X') page, link at the top, to see lots of photos from their visit!

Next week, we are looking forward to telling appropriate jokes next Friday as we raise money for Comic Relief through donations. This will be a non-uniform day and we encourage everyone to try and wear a little something red if possible!

As the Treehouse Playground is being repaired next week, I will be writing to parents of children in Year4 and 3SQ to explain the temporary new arrangements to keep everyone safe—please look out for the letter and email, thank you.

Have a great weekend everyone! Cathy Grace, Headteacher

ARTICLES OF THE WEEK

This week, we have been looking at three articles which all stress the importance of the duty of governments to ensure that children receive their human rights.

Article 1 states that all children under the age of 18 should get all their rights.

Article 4 states that governments must set up laws and systems to ensure rights are given.

Article 41 states that any country which holds children's rights to a higher standard than the articles may not lessen their care of children's rights.

Ready, Respectful, Safe.

Each week we introduce a different word associated with our school's expectations to reinforce our school's ethos, which is to be ready, respectful and safe. This week's word of the week is: 'appreciate.'

'Appreciate' is a word linked to our expectations to be respectful, but what does it mean?

"When you appreciate something, you are grateful for it. I appreciate having somewhere nice to live." Noor 4TW.

I would agree with Noor. By being appreciative we are showing gratitude and thankfulness. Perhaps an ideal word to consider for this Sunday. Ensure that you show all of the mothers out there the appreciation they deserve during Mothering Sunday.
