

For this lesson you will need: A pencil or pen, some crayons (optional) and some paper.

Note: if there is a word which is written in blue and underlined, it means you can click it and it will take you to a website.

L.O: I can explore the Diwali story and the spiritual joy known by Hindus at Diwali.

Can you answer the following questions to get your brain thinking?

You can draw a picture or write sentences to answer this question.

- What do you already know about Diwali?

Click here to watch the Hindu story of Rama and Sita.

Click here to learn about The Festival of Diwali.

Can you write a few points about how the two videos are linked to one another?

Can you draw some pictures to re-tell the story of Rama and Sita?

Maybe you could act the story out with your siblings? You could ask an adult to film it and share it on the Thornton Twitter feed?

Use the word mat to help you...and have fun!

