

Summer Creative Curriculum Homework

For the new Year 6 - World War II

C		 Have a go at creating a spitfire (a British fighter plane), and painting it in camouflage. You can also design and test out a parachute (using a toy or weight) that would allow a member of the RAF to land safely. Junk modelling: use every day items that you might bin/recycle.
R		Research Anne Frank's life (through kiddle.co), and present 10 facts you have learnt about her. https://www.kiddle.co
E		Take a virtual tour of the Hall of Memory online. The Hall of Memory is located on Broad Street, near Library of Birmingham in the city centre. It opened in 1925 and is a memorial to the men and women who gave their lives in the first world war, second world war, and in active service since 1945. http://hallofmemory.co.uk/
A		Have a look at the propaganda posters that were produced for the war. When looking at them, try and determine what message they were trying to get across. Think about a message that you would like to portray, and design your own propaganda poster! Look at this website for ideas: http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/war/campaigns.htm
T		Tune in! Listen to this podcast by 'Dad and Me Love History', Episode 28: Why did Hitler and the Nazis hate Jewish people? https://app.kidslisten.org/ep/Dad-and-Me-Love-History-28-Why-did-Hitler-and-the-Nazis-hate-Jewish-people#/
I		Using Kiddle to research Morse Code. Look at the history behind it, and have a go at writing your own message for the war. https://www.kiddle.co
V		Create your own glossary. Find 10 key words and their definitions associated with this topic. You can use this website: https://www.ducksters.com/history/world-war-ii/ww2-glossary-terms.php
E		Explain in your own words how would it have felt to have been a child growing up during the World War?
